Sheriff M. Sheehan has appointed R. G. Sneath of San Bruno a deputy sheriff in and for that district. Mr. Sneath is a millionaire and president of the Consumers' Ice Company of San Francisco. He no doubt has taken the star to protect and guard his broad acres on the San Bruno hills.

TIME'S OLD SLACKER.

Backward, turn backward,
O Time, in thy flight,
Make me a boy again,
So I can fight.
Just twenty-one,
So I can shoulder
A knapsack and gun,
Give me the muscles
I had years ago,
Give me a step that's
Not wobbly and slow,
Give me the strength that
I may play my part,
All that I have now for
War is the heart.
Give me the vim and
The vigor of youth,
I'll fight till doomsday, and
That is the truth.
Turn back the decades and
Give me a chance
To sail with the legends for
Far-away France,
What a chastisement it
Is to be told:
"Back to the fireside,
You're no good—too old."
Time, you're a criminal,
That's plain to see.
You've made a confounded
Old slacker of me.

RESPECT FOR THE BEAST

On a road in Belgium a German officer met a boy leading a jackass, and addressed him in heavy jargon as follows:

"That's a fine jackass you have my son. What do you call it? Albert, I bet!"

"Oh, no, officer," the boy replied quickly. "I think too highly of my King."

The German scowled and returned "I hope you don't dare to call it William."

"Oh, no, officer. I think too highly of my jackass."

HALFMOON BAY

The family of Prof. Scott Sterling now occupies the Ferandes residence on Kelly avenue. Their household goods were moved up from Mt. Hermon by Frank Bernardo last Saturday.

Prof. H. C. Hall of Corte Madera spent Saturday, Sunday and Labor Day in town with H. C. Hall Jr., and family. Miss Mary Hall arrived on Tuesday last for a visit with her brother and family.

Donald Frederick Fillmore, at one time a resident of Halfmoon Bay and no doubt, remembered by many, was married to Berle Ancane Uter in San Jose last Tuesday.

The Misses Anne and Clara Muller were week-end visitors at Miramar at their home place. The first-mentioned of the two young ladies has just returned after several months spent at Los Angeles.

The many friends of Miss Julie Black of Salada Beach were much surprised at her sudden departure for San Francisco last week. Her friends at last informed us of the arrival of an old admirer, Mr. J. Hill, and the wedding at Saint James, San Francisco. Mrs. Hill came down to her cottage, soon after the ceremony to settle her affairs and returned to San Francisco on Monday. Mr. Hill and his bride are enjoying an extended tour of Southern California.

Miss Eleanor Church from Portland, Oregon, is visiting Mrs. J. W. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson spent several days in San Francisco showing her friend the sights.

Miss Rose Meehan, formerly of this place, was operated upon last week at the Florence Ward hospital in the city for throat trouble. Latest reports is that she is doing nicely.

Miss Eva Diggs who lived here for many years and who is now assistant secretary, N. D. G. W. visited Mrs. A. McGinty on Sunday.

Among the hunters of last week, none were so happy as the Gunceek boys, who shot a fine young deer weighing 130 pounds. Jimmy had the first shot at him and his brother came in on the finish.

Wm. Pringle, formerly of Halfmoon Bay, and now a resident of Sacramento, has been spending a week at the home of the McGintys. He also enjoyed a few days on a hunting trip with his old associates, Tom Johnson, Jack Gilcrest and others.

Rev. Fr. Doran of San Francisco spent Labor Day in town among his former parishioners. He formerly was the pastor of the church of Our Lady of the Pillar.

Word was received from John Lewis from El Paso, Tex., stating that he is well and that he thinks it is great to belong to the army. John, Milton Azevedo, and Reuben (Knapp) Evans enlisted a short time ago as truck drivers in an aviation corps.

The Rev. W. D. Noon O. P. will give a week's mission in Mt. Carmel church commencing next Sunday, September 16th. Father Noon is a member of the Dominican Order of Preachers and wears the historic and attractive habit of that order during his Missions. He is a graduate of the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., and for several years was a professor at the famous Dominican University of St. Thomas at Manila. He is an eloquent preacher, and speaks Italian, French and Spanish. During the Mission Mass will be said every morning at 7 and 9 o'clock, and evening services will begin at 7:45. Those who have heard Father Noon speak in the highest terms of his ability as a pulpit orator. All are invited to attend the Mission.

SONOMA COUNTY SUPERVISORS TO NAME TAX OFFICER

The Board of Supervisors of Sonoma county meeting soon are expected to name a successor to County Tax Collector Frank M. Collins, who died on Saturday. A number of applicants are expected, including Deputy County Tax Collector T. Virgil Butts, who was with Collins throughout the entire time of the filling of the office for eleven years.

Mr. Butts is a graduate of the local high school. He resided here with his mother during the time he attended school. He left here about twelve years ago. Mr. Butts is well-known in Redwood City. "Water of Life" Topic at The Forum

The forum at the Baptist church presented as usual a very pleasant program last Sunday evening. Dr. Evanson not only gave an able address, but also rendered two very pleasing solos, with accompaniments. He spoke on "The Water of Life." The following is a digest of it. Jesus promised the woman at the well in Sychar "living water"—something even better than that drawn from Jacob's well though 100 feet deep.

"Living water" is a common expression of Scripture. Over "living water" the bird was killed for the ceremonial cleansing of lepers. And a Hebrew prophet exclaimed when speaking in respect to those who accepted right principles of life: "With joy shall ye draw from the wells of salvation."

"Living water" is always crystalline and sweet. So it is with Jesus Christ, as with no other. History is a vast store house of memory; great events crowded into a momentary life. These things eventually loose their interest for men because they belong to the stagnant past, and are unsuited to the thought-life of today. But Christ—his words and acts, are still fresh and living though 20 centuries have gone by.

Some great men have built world-kingdoms; to be devastated by the on-marching centuries. Others have built thought-kingdoms that endure through long ages. But these lose their charm for men as the ages pass. Men have even founded religious-kingdoms to attract unto them millions of worshippers. But these have no life in themselves, and change—decay. Ancient creeds, ceremonies and dogmas pass away. But Christ rises above all these. He is the "way, the truth," and also "the life." And life has the power of perpetuating itself. Above the confusion of world-strife can be heard today the call of humanity, calling for the pure, "water of life" something that satisfies; something that is real. God and Christ are the "fountain of life." They alone, therefore, can return a satisfactory answer to humanity's cry.

PEDRO VALLEY NOTES

Gus Stearns is assisting Supervisor Hickey to put the roads in this vicinity in good condition for the winter.

After a pleasant visit with friends in Monterey, San Juan and San Francisco, Mrs. E. H. Damman has returned to her home here.

E. J. Scott Esq. made a hurried visit to the city today and incidentally had his hair cut.

P. E. Fleming of Salada Beach, was here Wednesday looking over his property interests.

L. Guidoni, proprietor of the Lucita hotel here, having had an advantageous offer to go into business in San Francisco, moved his family and effects there last Friday. They made many friends here and along the coastside, and all were sorry to see them go.

It would do your heart good to see how the summer colony and especially those from the San Joaquin valley, enjoy the bathing here for as we all know "the sun always shines in Pedro" and as we have one of the truly to goodness safest bathing beaches between the Cliff House and Carmel, bathing may be indulged in at all times.

DOINGS AT PARALLONE

Ehrmann, the wholesale cigar manufacturer of San Francisco, who maintains a home at Atherton has awarded a contract to six different contractors for the erection of a two-story frame and brick dwelling, garage, swimming pool and for terracing the gardens. The stipulated price of the contract is $46,000 and the work is to be completed by February 20, 1918.

Mr. Ehrman recently purchased the Olive orchard on the foothills back of Atherton from Mr. Chappelle, formerly cashier of the custom house at the port of San Francisco. The site is one of the most attractive in the country for a home. The Ehrman domicile will be one of the show places of the peninsula.

Miss Edith Partridge, the pretty young daughter of Mrs. C. Partridge of this place, will be married in marriage this morning in San Francisco to Edward Harkins, son of Mrs. C. Harkins, and the late Major Harkins. The wedding will be a quite affair, only the relatives of the immediate families attending. Miss Partridge is a beautiful and accomplished young woman of a retiring disposition. Her charming manner has made many friends for her in Menlo Park where she has resided since childhood. Mr. Harkins is a mining engineer, having graduated from the mining department of Stanford several years ago. He is the superintendent of a mine, owned by the Noble Electrical Mining Company, near Folsom. The young couple after spending their honeymoon in the southern part of the state will reside at the mine.

Redmond Cochrane left for France Wednesday evening. He goes to serve his country at the front in the capacity of a field clerk. Young Cochrane had been a clerk in the war department in the Santa Fe building in San Francisco. Volunteers were asked by the department to go to the front and he with seventeen others promptly responded and their services were accepted. On Tuesday evening he was given a farewell dinner by Mr. and Mrs. John Morey at their home on MacBain avenue. A dozen other young men, who are soon to go in training at American Lake, were also guests at the dinner. Young Cochrane looked dapper in his new uniform, straight, erect possessing the step of the ideal soldier, he was the envy of his associates. He is a graduate of the high school at Redwood City where he made a record as a student. He has had some experience in travelling, having twice crossed the Pacific on the U. S. Transport Sheridan to Japan and China. His many friends in Menlo Park may be assured that he will give a good account of himself at the front.
